DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

a. (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-5, 11-14, and 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Avar et al. 6,487,796. Avar et al. '796 discloses all the limitations of the claims including the following: an upper 102 for receiving a foot of a wearer; a sole 106 attached to the upper; the sole having at least one support member (at least 108a); the support member having an exterior surface (see figures); at least one band 136 encircling the exterior surface of the support element; a structure that facilitates movable positioning of the band with respect to the exterior surface (the band is shown in Figure 3 to extend flatly outward, therefore that portion of the band extending outward away from the band receiving groove is a flange on the band); the structure is attached to the band (see Figure 3); the structure is a flange extending from the band (see Figure 3); the flange is formed with the band (See Figure 3); the flange is proportioned and positioned to allow the user to grip the flange (user can grip extending flat portion of band); at least one indentation 124 that receives the band; the band indentation circles the support element (see Figures); there are a plurality of support elements; the support element is hollow (see Figure 3).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 20-37 are allowed over the prior art of record.
4. Claims 6-10 and 15-16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure are cited on form 892 enclosed herewith.
